

George Hayter

QUALIFIED COACH

Why work with me?

Accompanied by a structured and creative approach, I lead with empathy and curiosity with sessions that are directed by your needs and objectives. We will clarify milestones, uncover hidden obstacles and explore practical strategies to reach your goals.

3 things you should know:

- Our sessions would be collaborative, forward focused and reflective
- I'm passionate about people and personal development
- In my free time, I like to stay active and attend Ballroom and Latin dance classes!

About me

Parallel to training and working within the Performing Arts industry, I developed a deep passion and curiosity for people development. This kickstarted my coaching journey in 2021 and led me to pursue qualifications relating to learning and development as well as gain experience in leading and training teams. I've worked in a wide range of industries, and I continue to be a lifelong learner who is committed to continuously evolving my skillset to support others more effectively.

My experience

Having worked with individuals from a wide range of industries, backgrounds and levels of seniority, some of the challenges I've coached others around have included:

- Breaking down projects/goals into manageable chunks, identifying priorities and next steps
- Navigating challenges, conflict and dynamics in working relationships
- Empowering managers with getting the best out of their teams

Testimonials

"George was supportive and provided really valuable feedback and insights"

My approach

My qualification in Coaching has equipped me with tools to help with exploring one's perception, enhancing self-awareness and uncovering the steppingstones to what you truly want. As an Action Centred Leadership (ACL) and Breakthrough Conversations Trainer, I can assist you to identify where you can add the most value as a leader and how to effectively navigate difficult conversations. Pairing my qualification in Coaching with my training and experience in the Performing Arts industry, I can support you to find confidence in your voice, present with presence and land your message with impact.
